

CDM Awareness

Why do you need it?

To understand the responsibilities of the duty holders under the Construction (Design and Management) Regulations 2007 and how they affect individuals and the company.

Who is it for?

All duty holders and persons who work on notifiable projects, as principal and sub contractors

Pre-requisites

None

Aims:

- To raise awareness of the responsibilities of the duty holders
- To gain an understanding of what each duty holder's role is
- To ensure legal compliance with the regulations
- Improve the safety performance of the company

Content

- The law
- Who are the duty holders?
- The client's responsibilities
- The CDM Co-ordinators responsibilities
- The designers responsibilities
- The Principal contractors responsibilities
- General requirements under CDM 2008

What next:

- IOSH Working Safely
- IOSH Managing Safely
- Risk Management Training

Duration: 1 day

For more details contact us on 01322 221900